

Studi Lockiani

Ricerche sull'età moderna

vol. 1 (2020)

Editor in chief

Giuliana Di Biase

Associate Editors

Diego Lucci, Luisa Simonutti

Editorial Board

Brunello Lotti (Managing Editor, Università di Udine), Matteo Favaretti Camposampiero (Università "Ca' Foscari" di Venezia), Guido Giglioni (Università di Macerata), Davide Poggi (Università di Verona), Paola Rumore (Università di Torino), Raffaele Russo (University of Innsbruck), Charles Wolfe (Università "Ca' Foscari" di Venezia), Francesco Terenzio (Editorial Assistant, Università "G. d'Annunzio" di Chieti - Pescara).

International Scientific Board

Igor Agostini (Università del Salento), Peter Anstey (University of Sidney), Ruth Boeker (University College Dublin), Sorana Corneanu (University of Bucharest), Adriano Fabris (Università di Pisa), Marco Forlivesi (Università "G. d'Annunzio" di Chieti - Pescara), Mark Goldie (Churchill College, University of Cambridge), Jessica Gordon-Roth (University of Minnesota), Philippe Hamou (Université Paris Nanterre), Benjamin Hill (Western University, Canada), Sarah Hutton (University of York), Antonia LoLordo (University of Virginia), Montserrat Herrero (Universidad de Navarra), Victor Nuovo (Middlebury College, Middlebury, VT), Maria-Cristina Pitassi (University of Geneva), Martine Pécharman (Centre de Recherches sur les Arts et le Langage/EHESS/CNRS), Paul Schuurman (Erasmus University Rotterdam), John Simmons (University of Virginia), Timothy Stanton (University of York), Jean-Michel Vienne (Centre atlantique de philosophie CAPHI, University of Nantes - University of Rennes), Shelley Weinberg (University of Illinois at Urbana - Champaign), Richard Yeo (Griffith University).

SLK.

S t u d i
Lockiani

Ricerche sull'età moderna

2020

anteprima

visualizza la scheda del libro su www.edizioniets.com

Edizioni ETS

www.edizioniets.com

Registrazione presso il Tribunale di Pisa n. 5192/2020.

Direttore responsabile
Alessandra Borghini

Yearly journal / Periodico annuale

Subscription / Abbonamento

print, individual:	Italy, UE € 40,00 / Outside EU € 45,00
print, institutional:	Italy, UE € 45,00 / Outside EU € 60,00
digital edition:	individual € 20,00 / institutional: € 35,00
single article PDF:	€ 10,00

© Copyright 2020
Edizioni ETS
Palazzo Roncioni - Lungarno Mediceo, 16, I-56127 Pisa
info@edizioniets.com
www.edizioniets.com

Distribuzione
Messaggerie Libri SPA
Sede legale: via G. Verdi 8 - 20090 Assago (MI)

Promozione
PDE PROMOZIONE SRL
via Zago 2/2 - 40128 Bologna

ISBN 978-884675957-3
ISSN 2724-4016

Indice / Table of content

Foreword	7
----------	---

Articles

Diego Lucci, Locke and the Trinity	11
Raffaele Russo, The Lamp under the Bushel. Messianic Secrecy in Locke's Christology	39
Davide Poggi, Tracce di una filosofia dell'essere nella concezione lockiana dell'astrazione. Spunti critici	67
Brunello Lotti, Natura e origine del movimento in Locke	89
Luisa Simonutti, Inspirational Journeys and Trunks of Books: Initial Notes on Locke the Traveller	131
Paola Rumore, Locke in Halle: A chapter of the 18th-century German reception of John Locke	163

Notes

Francesco Terenzio, Il contenuto dei journals di Locke	197
Giuliana Di Biase, Carlo Augusto Viano on John Locke's Idea of Experience	213

Reviews

Diego Lucci, review of Victor Nuovo, John Locke: The Philosopher as Christian Virtuoso , Oxford University Press, Oxford 2017, 263 pp.	233
Diego Lucci, review of Luisa Simonutti (ed.), Locke and Biblical Hermeneutics: Conscience and Scripture , Springer, Cham 2019, 266 pp.	237

Foreword

Locke's influence on the history of Western thought has been immense, as Hans Aarsleff has remarked. His works have inspired a myriad of philosophers, educators, writers, and continue to attract the attention of a large number of scholars from different countries. The wealth of source material that Locke left for posterity, the greatest part of which became accessible to the public less than a century ago, has stimulated interest in his ideas and has contributed to a better understanding of his works. Extensive research into Locke's manuscripts, carried out by Benjamin Rand, Richard Ayer, Jocelyn Gibb, Wilhelm von Leyden, Peter Laslett, William Yolton and Kenneth Dewhurst, to mention but a few, has clarified key aspects of Locke's thought and has provided us with a more accurate account of his sources, interests, and beliefs. Other scholars have opened up new perspectives on some aspects of his oeuvre and have thus contributed to improving our appreciation of crucial issues in his philosophy. As a consequence, Locke's views on politics, ethics, religion, physics, education, and even economics appear today in a new light. Our understanding of his ideas regarding Aristotelianism, Scholasticism, Cartesianism and corpuscularianism is clearer than in the past.

Scholars from various countries have contributed to making this reassessment of Locke's work available to a larger public. New editions of Locke's corpus, translated into various languages, appeared almost everywhere in the past century. In Italy, Armando Carlini and Vittorio Sainati published the first Italian translation of the drafts of the Essay, while Carlo Augusto Viano edited the Italian translation of the Two Tracts on Government and A Letter concerning Toleration. A new edition of the Essay was published by Nicola Abbagnano in 1971, and was followed by another edited by Viano. Locke's writings on toleration appeared in 1997, translated and edited by Diego Marconi. Thanks to Mario Sina, several of Locke's manuscript notes on religion were published for the first time in Italian in 2000, together with the Abregé, The Reasonableness of Christianity, and Of the Conduct of the Understanding. All these Locke specialists have offered us powerful insights into Locke's work. This is also the case with Chiara Giuntini's recent book on Locke's concept of awareness (2015).

Studi lockiani. Ricerche sull'età moderna intends to follow the path pursued by these scholars by promoting international scholarly dialogue about central issues in Locke's thought. This journal aims at providing a forum for the discussion of Locke's ideas and the theories of authors who influenced him (e.g. Hooker, Descartes, Hobbes, Boyle, Malebranche, Arnauld, Pascal, More, Newton, etc.), or were engaged in debate with him (e.g. Stillingfleet, Butler, Clarke, Damaris Cudworth, Norris, Astell, Leibniz, Toland, Collins, Clarke, Hume, Reid, Voltaire, etc.). The focus of this journal is mainly on key themes, which may take us some way towards an understanding of the religious, political, cultural and intellectual contexts that influenced Locke, or were influenced by him.

The inaugural volume of Studi lockiani has a sharp focus on Locke. It is devoted to some aspects of his thought, with the aim of offering a broad view on various perspectives of research on his works. The essays and notes collected in this first volume have been written by members of the Editorial Board of the journal, and represent the first fruit of a project involving scholars from different countries. We would like to thank all of them for their support, which has encouraged us to go ahead in hard times like these. A special "thank you" goes to the reviewers, who have helped us significantly with their valuable suggestions.

The Editors of Studi Lockiani
Giuliana Di Biase
Diego Lucci
Luisa Simonutti

Edizioni ETS
Palazzo Roncioni - Lungarno Mediceo, 16, I-56127 Pisa
info@edizioniets.com - www.edizioniets.com
Finito di stampare nel mese di dicembre 2020